Objective:

The Graphic Designing Competition aimed to discover and recruit talented graphic designers for the LOL Coding Club. The competition provided an opportunity for students to showcase their creativity and design skills, encouraging them to express their artistic abilities and join a dynamic team. The event was designed to identify top performers who could contribute to the club's visual content and branding.

Outcomes:

By the end of the competition, participants were able to:

- Demonstrate their creative abilities through on-the-spot design tasks.
- Gain experience in a competitive and timed design environment.
- Apply their design concepts and techniques to create stunning visuals.
- Develop the ability to produce high-quality designs under time constraints.

Detailed Report:

Introduction:

The "Graphic Designing Competition," organized by the Learning Out Loud Coding Club, was an initiative to hire talented designers for the club.
